Fee Policy 2017

Glossodia Scouts offer a trial period of 4 weeks; is the best way to find out if your children will enjoy scouting activities.

After 4 weeks if your children decide to continue, they will be registered with Scouts Australia. The one-off initial joining fee is $30 and annual membership is $160 per person. The membership fee goes to the NSW branch of Scouts Australia and provides extensive insurance including public liability and personal accident cover to all registered members.

In addition there are term subs which help to cover maintenance of our hall and grounds, insurance, electricity, water and materials used in the scouting activities on meeting nights and weekends.

The most successful Scout Groups are those where there is strong adult support. Scouts Australia volunteers are enthusiastic and dedicated men and women from all walks of life who share a love for adventure and a desire to enrich young people's lives.

As such we have introduced a fee structure to both reward those families that support the Glossodia Scout group and also to encourage all families to provide assistance.

We ask one member on behalf of the family (parents, grandparents, carers, etc) to attend and assist at one event per term. Events include working bees, fundraisers and group events like Jamborette and Cub Camps. Leaders and Group Support Committee members already donate a large amount of time; their children are automatically eligible for the "With Assistance" fee. You may elect not to assist the Scout Group; in such case you will pay a different fee, see below. New families entering part way through the year will get the first full term at the lower cost.

Number of Children In Family	Subs per Term, With Assistance	Subs per Term, No Assistance
1 Child, Joey	$ 30	$ 45
2 Children, only Joeys	$ 45	$ 60
3 Children, only Joeys	$ 55	$ 70
1 Child, Cub / Scout / Venturer	$ 40	$ 55
2 Children, across sections	$ 60	$ 75
3 Children, across sections	$ 75	$ 90

At the beginning of each term, an invoice will be sent for ¼ of the Scouts Australia Membership fee and Term Subs.

Resignation of the Group need to be done in writing (e-mail or other) and can only start per next term, following on resignation date.
